Goodwill North Central Texas' Business Advisory Council plays a critical role in making Goodwill's mission possible. This partnership is crucial for tracking labor market trends and developing programs and services to address the needs of the communities we serve. Please join us!

All about the BAC!

What is the Business Advisory Council (BAC)?

Goodwill's BAC members provide advice and counsel to Goodwill staff, educate others on Goodwill's mission and services, and maintain a network for the successful employment of Goodwill program graduates.

Time Commitment

At least once (in person or virtual) annually to review course instructional and support materials.

A Rewarding Experience

The most rewarding benefit of service as a member of Goodwill's Business Advisory council is having the opportunity to impact people's lives in ways that help them become more self-sufficient.

Other Benefits

- Network with community business leaders and professionals
- Opportunity to showcase your business to potential customers, partners, and job applicants
- Spotlight your company by hosting a Council meeting
- Opportunity to serve and give back to your community.
